

THE MYERS OUTSTANDING BOOK AWARD presented by the Gustavus Myers Center for the Study of Bigotry and Human Rights in North America

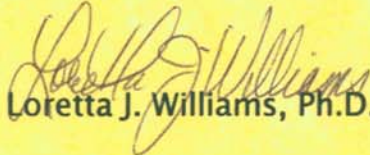

On December 10, 2006 to

MEIZHU LUI; BARBARA ROBLES; BETSY LEONDAR WRIGHT; ROSE M. BREWER; and REBECCA ADAMSON

for demonstrating the disparate impact of public policies that leads to a racialized economic treadmill for some, and, importantly, for offering alternative strategies to end this injustice

THE COLOR OF WEALTH: THE STORY BEHIND THE U.S. RACIAL WEALTH DIVIDE

published by The New Press 2006

Loretta J. Williams, Ph.D., Director